

GHS Oct. Students of the Month

Shambree is a very organized and hard working student who understands the importance of education. She is respectful, thoughtful and a outstanding representative of the Senior Class, Garretson High School, and the community of Garretson.

Annika has exhibited an excellent work ethic her classes. She is a wonderful classmate to her peers and a reliable student for her teachers. She is a wonderful representative of GHS

Riley has done a great job at being an active participant on class and diligently completing assignments. Riley is a great role model for his peers in all aspects of school: academically, socially, and athletically.

Zeb is a student that places school high on his priority list. He's very respectful and is eager to participate in class. His willingness to help others is appreciated. Zeb's been a great addition to the classroom and to GHS.